Student Notice: Annual College Fest- Tatva, 2026

All students are hereby informed that during the Annual College Cultural Fest – TATVA, scheduled on 17th and 18th March, 2026, the college gate will be closed for both entry and exit at 2:00 PM on both days. No entry or exit will be permitted after 2:00 PM under any circumstances.

Students who do not wish to attend the full event on either day must exit the campus before 2:00 PM. Once the gate is closed, students will not be allowed to leave the premises until the conclusion of the event.

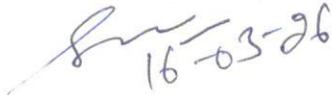

Entry to the campus during the fest will be strictly permitted only for regular college students and participants who have completed prior registration for the event. Students must present their original College ID card at the time of entry and carry it at all times for verification.

Additionally, the following areas will remain closed to students during the fest:

- Old Building (except Room No. 27 and Room No. 35)
- SNB
- NB

Students are strictly prohibited from entering these areas. Washrooms located outside the New Building will remain open for the use of students during the fest.

All students are advised to adhere to these instructions and cooperate with the teaching, Non-teaching and security staff to ensure the smooth conduct of the fest. Any student found violating these guidelines will be liable for disciplinary action as per the rules of the Discipline Committee.
